

Born to Rope

Vocabulary

dappled—marked with spots or patches of light and dark exhibition—a show for the public landscape business—a company that makes money by designing, shaping, and planting gardens for customers ranch—a large farm for raising horses, beef cattle, or sheep thousands—whole numbers, written 1,000, 2,000, 3,000, and so on that are equal to 10 times 100, 200, 300, and so on