

Helping Out

1. What is the genre of "Helping Out"?

Page ____

2. When does the author say to plant a vegetable garden?

Page ____

- A) in the fall
- B) in the spring
- C) in the summer
- D) in the winter

3. Which chore does the author say you can turn into fun?

Page ____

- A) changing oil
- B) washing the dishes
- C) playing a game
- D) washing a car

4. The book says one way to help a teacher is to _____. Page ____

- A) bring her an apple
- B) pass out papers
- C) hand out snacks
- D) clean the classroom

5. What does the author say is the best thing about helping out? Page ____

Helping Out

6. Which job does the author say can be dirty? Page ____

- A) changing the oil in the engine of a car
- B) planting a garden
- C) cleaning the classroom

7. What does the picture on pages 176 and 177 show?

- A) a girl changing the oil in a car
- B) a girl handing someone a tool
- C) a girl painting her treehouse

8. What is the main idea (central message) of this book?

- A) children should not try to do things alone
- B) children should get paid for helping out others
- C) there are many ways children can help out others

9. Finish the sentence.

Page ____

After you learn to do things well, you can begin to get _____ for your work.

10. Finish the sentence.

Page ____

When you work _____ an adult and do a good job, you feel pretty big.