Singular and Plural Nouns

A singular noun names one person, place, or thing.

A plural noun names more than one person, place, or thing.

Add es to singular nouns that end with sh, ch, x, z, and s to make them plural.

Directions: Rewrite each sentence to change the singular noun to a plural noun.

1. I saw a dish on the table.
   ________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________

2. I made a wish on a falling star.
   ________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________

3. My dad gave a box to me.
   ________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________

4. We found a brush in the bathroom.
   ________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________

5. I saw a bus at the school.
   ________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________