Combining Sentences

Directions: Combine the two sentences into one correct sentence.

1. The moon is bright. The stars are bright.

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

2. Mason loves to play soccer. Leyton loves to play soccer.

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

3. Laci works at the flower shop. Michelle works at the flower shop.

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________