

Name _____

Subjects and Predicates

The subject names something or someone.
The predicate tells what something or someone does.

Directions: Circle the subject of the sentence. Underline the predicate of the sentence.

Example: The teacher gave her students homework.

1. Walker ate an apple at lunch.
2. Thomas and Austin played tag at recess.
3. Ashton scored a goal during her soccer game.
4. Ava wore a pretty dress for picture day.
5. We stayed up late last night to watch a movie.
6. Mom and I made cookies for the party.
7. Mr. Kelley's class is learning about toads and frogs.
8. The computer will not start.
9. You need to wash the mud off of your car.
10. Katie fell in the hallway and hurt her knee.