Unit Two, Week Four
“Eagles and Eaglets”

1. What are baby eagles called?

2. How long does it take for an eaglet’s wings to grow strong?

3. Describe some of the physical features of a bald eagle.

4. What are the characteristics of expository text?

5. How long does it take for an eaglet to become an adult? How long can bald eagles live?
6. Write about eagles and eaglets are alike and different. Use key details.

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________