Prompt: Rewrite the beginning of the fable "The Boy Who Cried Wolf." Be sure to use supporting details to help readers understand your ideas.
Who?
________________________________________

What happened?
________________________________________
________________________________________
________________________________________

Where did it happen?
________________________________________
________________________________________
Prompt: Write the beginning of a fable about a boy who tricks a wolf. Use supporting details to help readers understand your ideas.