

Name: _____

Singular and Plural Nouns

A singular noun names one person, place, or thing.

A plural noun names more than one person, place or thing.

Add an s to many singular nouns to make them plural.

Rewrite each sentence to change the singular noun to a plural noun.

example: One dog barked last night.

Three dogs barked last night.

1. I saw a cat walking on the sidewalk.

2. My mom read me a book before bedtime.

3. I had one pancake for breakfast.

4. We ran a lap in gym class today.

5. Tom played with his friend at recess.
