Words of Wisdom / Proverbs

A penny saved is ______________________________

__________________________________________

__________________________________________

__________________________________________
A bird in the hand is worth ______________
A rotten apple ________________________
Words of Wisdom / Proverbs

All that glitters ________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________
Words of Wisdom / Proverbs

All good things ____________________________

______________________________

______________________________
Beauty is in ___________________________
Words of Wisdom / Proverbs

Beauty is in ________________________________

_____________________________________

_____________________________________

_____________________________________

_____________________________________

Better to be safe than __________________________

______________________________________________

______________________________________________
Don’t count your chickens before _________
Don’t cut off your nose to _______________ Every rose has _______________________

___________________________________

___________________________________

Words of Wisdom / Proverbs
If wishes were horses ____________________

____________________________________

____________________________________
Let sleeping dogs ____________________________

___________________________________

___________________________________

Words of Wisdom / Proverbs
Words of Wisdom / Proverbs

Look before you _______________________

___________________________________

___________________________________

www.theteachersguide.com
Money is the root of __________________________

________________________________________

________________________________________
Never bite off more than ________________ Never make a mountain out of ____________
People who live in glass houses shouldn’t
The early bird catches _________________
Words of Wisdom / Proverbs

The pen is mightier than ________________

___________________________________

___________________________________

___________________________________

___________________________________
Too many cooks  __________________________
Two wrongs don’t make ________________
When the cat’s away the ____________________________

___________________________________

___________________________________

Words of Wisdom / Proverbs
Where there's smoke there's ____________

___________________________________

___________________________________

___________________________________

___________________________________
You can lead a horse to water but you can’t
You can’t eat your cake and ____________

___________________________________

___________________________________

___________________________________

www.theteachersguide.com
You can catch more flies with honey than ____

___________________________________

___________________________________

___________________________________
You make your bed; you must _______________