

Name: _____

Cookies

In a kitchen cozy, warm and bright,
Where ovens hum and hearts delight,
Lies the magic of a baking spree,
A sweet adventure for you and me.

Gather ingredients, measure with care,
Flour, sugar, chocolate to share,
Butter soft and eggs so neat,
Mixing together, a delicious treat.

Golden edges, a tempting sight,
Aroma swirls, a sweet delight,
From oven's warmth to cooling rack,
Cookies waiting to give back.

Soft and chewy, or crispy snap,
Flavors dancing in a cookie cap,
Chocolate chips or nuts galore,
Each bite a treat, we can't ignore.

So here's to cookies, both big and small,
Bringing joy and comforting all,
In every bite, a touch of glee,
A world of sweetness for you and me.

1. What is the rhyme scheme of this poem? _____

2. What is the tone (how the author feels about the subject) of the poem? (circle one)

positive

negative

neutral

3. How did the poem make you feel? _____

4. Think of another title for the poem. _____