

 Name: _____

Hot Cocoa

In a mug so big and wide,
Chocolate swirls, a cozy tide.
Steamy whispers rise above,
Cocoa warmth, a winter's love.

Marshmallows dance upon the top,
Melting slow, they never stop.
Sip by sip, it warms me so,
Oh, hot cocoa, you make me glow!

When snowflakes dance outside my door,
Your sweet embrace, I do adore.
With every sip, a hug so tight,
Oh, hot cocoa, you feel just right!

1. What is the rhyming pattern of this poem? _____

2. How does the author describe the marshmallows in the second stanza? _____

3. How does the author feel about hot cocoa? _____

4. What feeling does the author associate with drinking hot cocoa?

- a) Sadness
- b) Excitement
- c) Warmth and comfort
- d) Tiredness