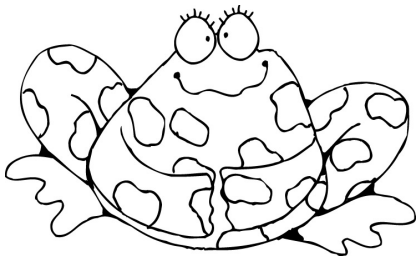
Froggie in the Bathtub

I was playin with my froggie in the bathtub
On one very cold and rainy day
I was playin with my froggie in the bathtub
When, woops, he jumped and got away

My froggie is swimmin' in the bathtub
If you've ever been sittin' there you'll know
So if you feel a little splash (Woo!)
Or hear a little croak (Ribbet!)
It's just my froggie doin' the backstroke

Someone thought they saw him in the laundry
Once he ate up half the cookie jar
But playing in the depths of the bathtub
It's his absolute favorite place by far

Well that is the story of my froggie
He may not ever be seen again
So when you're sittin' in the bathtub
Doin what ya gotta do
Just remember my little song
And remember my froggie too



Graphics copyright DJ Inkers. www.djinkers.com