

Name: _____

Word Problems Involving Measurement

~~60~~ Solve the problems.

1. Finish labeling the graduated cylinder.
2. Shade in the cylinder to show 72 ml of water.
3. If you had four cylinders with exactly 72 ml of water in each, how much water in milliliters would you have?
4. Using your answer from question 3, how much more water would you need to have 1 liter?
5. Round your answer from question 3 to the nearest hundred. _____
6. Landon has 43 more milliliters in his graduated cylinder than the 72 ml of water in this cylinder. How much water in milliliters does Landon have?