

Name: _____

Context Clues

Read the paragraphs and answer the questions.

Maya spotted a peculiar bird perched on a branch. Its feathers were a mix of blue, green, and gold, and its call was unlike anything she had ever heard. She watched quietly, hoping not to startle it. The bird tilted its head in a curious way, as if it was watching her too. Maya felt lucky to witness such an unusual sight.

1. What does the word peculiar most likely mean?

- a) Bright and colorful
- b) Strange or unusual
- c) Small and common

When Mary opened the old box in the attic, she found a relic from her grandmother's childhood. It was a tiny music box with a cracked mirror and faded paint. Even though it looked old and worn, it still played a soft tune when Mary turned the key. She knew it must be something special, a treasure from the past.

2. What does the word relic most likely mean?

- a) A brand-new toy
- b) An old object from the past
- c) A type of animal.

As the students walked into the museum, they were amazed by the huge mural on the wall. It had colorful paint and stretched from the floor all the way to the ceiling. The scene showed mountains, rivers, and animals all painted in great detail. Everyone stopped to stare at the giant artwork..

3. What does the word mural most likely mean?

- a) A small statue
- b) A large painting on a wall
- c) A book about nature