

Name: _____

Point of View/Context Clues

Read the short passages and answer the questions.

I pressed my face against the cold glass window as the snow began to fall. The white flakes twirled and danced in the air before landing softly on the ground. I felt a shiver run through me, but I didn't want to move away from the window. The world outside looked serene, quiet and calm, almost like a picture in a book. My little brother tugged on my sleeve, but I kept watching the snow, amazed by its delicate beauty, as the thin, fragile flakes melted quickly on the glass.

1. From which point of view is the story written?
 - a) first (1st) person
 - b) third (3rd) person
2. Which line from the story helps you identify the point of view?
 - a) I felt a shiver run through me....
 - b) The white flakes twirled and danced....
3. The passage says, "The world outside looked serene, quiet and calm, almost like a picture in a book."
What does serene mean in this sentence?
 - A) Loud and noisy
 - B) Calm and peaceful
 - C) Dark and stormy
4. The passage says, "I kept watching the snow, amazed by its delicate beauty, as the thin, fragile flakes melted quickly on the glass."
What does delicate mean in this sentence?
 - A) Strong and heavy
 - B) Soft and fragile
 - C) Big and bold

Name: _____

Point of View/Context Clues

Read the short passages and answer the questions.

Lila walked slowly along the trail, feeling the crunch of leaves beneath her feet. The forest was filled with the fragrant smell of pine trees, sweet and fresh like a garden in spring. Birds chirped cheerfully above her, and she paused to admire the towering trees that stretched high into the sky, their trunks wide and strong. The sunlight peeked through the branches, making the forest look magical.

1. What point of view is this passage written in?

- a) First person
- b) Third person

2. Which words show the narrator is telling the story about someone else?

- a) "I" and "my"
- b) "Lila" and "her"
- c) "trail" and "leaves"

Answer: B) "Lila" and "her"

3. The passage says, "The forest was filled with the fragrant smell of pine trees, sweet and fresh like a garden in spring."

What does fragrant most likely mean?

- A) Smelly and unpleasant
- B) Sweet-smelling and pleasant
- C) Loud and noisy

4. The passage says, "She paused to admire the towering trees that stretched high into the sky, their trunks wide and strong."

What does towering most likely mean?

- A) Very tall
- B) Small and thin
- C) Short and wide