

Name: _____

Point of View Practice Activity

1. Mark (highlight, cross out) the dialogue in the story.
2. Circle first-person pronouns in the narration.
3. Determine if the passage is in first-person or third-person point of view.

I tapped my pencil against my cheek, staring at the empty white page of my sketchbook. Rain pattered against the classroom window, and I had no idea what to draw for art class.

"Stuck, Zoe?" asked my teacher, Ms. Rivera, stopping by my desk.

"I can't think of anything cool," I sighed, resting my chin on my hand. "Everyone else is drawing dinosaurs and space shuttles."

Ms. Rivera pointed to the window. "What about the rain? Look at how the drops make tiny ripples in the puddles."

My eyes lit up as I looked at the glass. "I can draw a frog wearing a giant bright yellow raincoat splash-jumping into a puddle!"

"That sounds wonderful," Ms. Rivera chuckled. "I can't wait to see it."

I grabbed my green crayon and started sketching as fast as my hand could go.

1. What is the narrative voice (first-person or third-person) of the passage? Write your answer on the line.

Name: _____

Point of View Practice Activity

1. Mark (highlight, cross out) the dialogue in the story.
2. Circle first-person pronouns in the narration.
3. Determine if the passage is in first-person or third-person point of view.

Zoe tapped her pencil against her cheek, staring at the empty white page of her sketchbook. Rain pattered against the classroom window, and she had no idea what to draw for art class.

"Stuck, Zoe?" asked her teacher, Ms. Rivera, stopping by her desk.

"I can't think of anything cool," Zoe sighed, resting her chin on her hand. "Everyone else is drawing dinosaurs and space shuttles."

Ms. Rivera pointed to the window. "What about the rain? Look at how the drops make tiny ripples in the puddles."

Zoe's eyes lit up as she looked at the glass. "I can draw a frog wearing a giant bright yellow raincoat splash-jumping into a puddle!"

"That sounds wonderful," Ms. Rivera chuckled. "I can't wait to see it."

Zoe grabbed her green crayon and started sketching as fast as her hand could go.

1. What is the narrative voice (first-person or third-person) of the passage? Write your answer on the line.
