Point of View Practice Activity

1. Mark (highlight, cross out) the dialogue in the story.
2. Circle first-person pronouns in the narration.
3. Determine if the passage is in first-person or third-person point of view.

I squeezed my eyes shut and made a wish before blowing out the eight candles on my chocolate cake. When I opened my eyes, my mom was holding a big box wrapped in shiny silver paper.

"Open this one first, Chloe," Mom said, placing the heavy box on my lap.

My fingers raced to tear off the paper. "Is it what I think it is?" I asked, my voice squeaking with excitement.

My brother Sam leaned over my shoulder. "If it's a puppy, I get to name him!"

"No way, Sam!" I laughed, finally pulling off the lid. Inside sat a pair of bright purple roller skates with rainbow wheels.

"They are amazing!" I gasped, pulling one out to hold it up. "Can we go to the driveway right now and try them?"

Mom smiled and tossed me a pink helmet. "Safety first, birthday girl. Put your shoes on!"

1. What is the narrative voice (first-person or third-person) of the passage? Write your answer on the line.
